Cloud Charts

David is founder and Chief Executive of Update, providers of market leading technical analysis software to private and professional investors in over 40 countries. He is a holder of the Master Financial Technical Analyst (MFTA) qualification and a member of the Association of American Professional Technical Analysts (AAPTA). He has recently written the book "Cloud Charts."

David will cover the ground-breaking new area of technical analysis, known as Cloud Charts or Ichimoku in Japan. He will present many new ideas that have underpinned his recent book on the subject. He will look at combining Cloud Charts with other technical analysis techniques, multi-time frame analysis, Japanese pattern techniques, back-testing and market breadth.
