December Monthly Meeting & Christmas Party

SPEAKER: Alpesh Patel,
Agile Partners Asset Management

2005 UK & Global Outlook: Money Management First, Technical Analysis Second and Fundamentals Third

Alpesh, a former barrister, left to trade full time on his own account in 1996. He has written for the Financial Times since 1999, and provided regular market views for Barclays, Merrill Lynch and HSBC, as well as investment talks for American Express and Goldman Sachs. This year he won the Financial Times "Predict the FTSE over 12 months" competition, coming within 0.5% of the final value, using TA. Alpesh is a former Visiting Fellow in Business of Corpus Christi College, Oxford, and a trustee of the Royal Institute of International Affairs. He is the author of several investment books published by the Financial Times.

Using the same skills which consistently beat fund managers, a mixture of technicals (trend following, momentum, statistical) and fundamentals Alpesh will discuss his favourite UK and global stocks, including ADRs (especially Brazilian, Indian, Chinese and Russian stocks), and Exchange Traded Funds for 2005. Also, where he sees the major indices going. Keeping with the jovial Christmas spirit, he will also host "Who wants to be a "TA" Millionaire", and provide "alternative" top trader advice.
